Representative Engagements

Federal Bureau of Investigation (FBI) Subject Matter Experts (SME)

SAVA provided Subject Matter Experts (SMEs) in the areas of intelligence, counterintelligence, counterterrorism, and criminal investigations to assist the FBI in the execution of their day-to-day activities. These specialized personnel with FBI specific knowledge will be located throughout the U.S. and will assist with the support and operations for FBI programs of varying scope and complexity. Through this opportunity, SAVA will continue to provide personnel to enhance the Bureau's ability to perform its mission.

Department of Labor (DOL)

SAVA has been selected by the Department of Labor to assist the Office of Foreign Labor Certification (OFLC), Employment and Training Administration in carrying out their responsibilities under immigration law with respect to the admission of foreign workers. Specifically, we will provide the OFLC Headquarters Operations in Washington, D.C., with Program Office Support, Budget Analysis, Human Capital Studies and Analysis, and Project and Program Management support.

The General Services Administration (GSA)

SAVA will provide the GSA operational support services at the U.S. Custom House in Chicago, Illinois. The administrative/reception office support service tasks include greet visitors, answer phone, and represent property management office to customers.
